

Reflection Rubric
Criteria	1	2	3
Writing Elements- Does the student demonstrate good grammar, punctuation, and sentence structure.	Student has multiple spelling mistakes, grammar mistakes, and sentences have very little to no transition.	Student makes some grammar and punctuation mistakes, but sentences follow a logical order.	Student reflection makes grammatical and logical sense. It has no punctuation mistakes.
Evidence and Reference- Does the student include details from the article.	Student does not refer to the article once.	Student refers to the article at least one time.	Student refers to the article twice in a manner that supports their sentence.
Depth of Response- Does the student go into detail about their thoughts on the dilemma presented?	Student does not mention their thoughts about the issues presented.	Student mentions their thoughts but does not go into any additional detail (more than 1 sentence).	Student mentions their thoughts on the dilemma and proceeds to explain their reasoning in multiple sentences.